DENVER BRASS PRESENTS: WHO KIDNAPPED THE CONDUCTOR?

Denver, CO: The Denver Brass presents its season premier concert and annual donor reception at the Newman Center for the Performing Arts on 10/13/2018

Schedule: Saturday, October 13, 2018 - 2:00pm; Donor reception in Joy Burns Plaza following concert

Location: June Swaner Gates Concert Hall at the Newman Center for the Performing Arts

Repertoire: World Premiere by Emmy-Winning Composer Charles Denler, Overture to The Barber of Seville, Dance Macabre, Quest for the Golden Blade of Truth, and more

Tickets: Starting at $21; purchase at www.newmantix.com/denverbrass or by calling 303-832-4676

EMERGENCY! Our conductor has been kidnapped! How will we pull off our daring world premiere by Charles Denler and the magnificent Overture to the Barber of Seville? Join our investigative team to figure out who committed the crime. Was it someone in the trombone section? Or perhaps it was one of the trumpeters? Help us solve the mystery as we interrogate each of the players in this brassy whodunit. More than just a concert, this will be a crime solving show you won't want to miss.

Entering its 38th season, the Denver Brass is a one-of-a-kind chamber ensemble and one of just a few professional large brass ensembles in the world. The ensemble is made up of 14 full-time professional musicians and is renowned for its forward-thinking brass performances, original commissions, world-class recordings and community outreach programs. The Denver Brass presents more than 150 performances and is heard live by over 50,000 people annually, making it one of the top 25 cultural attractions in Denver. The ensemble is a past recipient of the Mayor's Award for Excellence in the Arts and can be heard on 30+ CDs, 2 DVDs, digital platforms and radio stations around the world.

For more information, ticket sales and season schedule, please visit denverbrass.org or call 303-832-4676. Discounts are available for first time listeners, youth, seniors and groups. A reception for all Denver Brass donors will be held after the concert with champagne and dessert.
