The Denver Brass Presents: If It's Not Baroque, Don't Fix It!

<<For immediate release>> DENVER- Imagine yourself transported to the era of the great Baroque composers, when cathedrals provided a concert hall sound straight from Heaven. Join the Denver Brass April 5 & 6 at Bethany Lutheran Church as they present an elaborate and ornamented artistic expression associated with Bach, Pachelbel and Handel.

If It's Not Baroque, Don't Fix It! will feature a remarkable soloist and the Denver Brass' very own bass trombone player, Andrew Wolfe. Music crafted by the great Baroque composers will include: Pachelbel Canon, Little Fugue and Royal Fireworks.

Grown right here at home, The Denver Brass is a style-melding band of 14 professional musicians. They are dedicated to enhancing the quality of life in Colorado audiences by presenting fresh and exhilarating shows that feature all musical styles. One of just a few professional large brass ensembles in the world, The Denver Brass enjoys a success directly linked to its universal appeal. The musicians are all full-time professionals and live all along the front range of the Rockies – from Colorado Springs to Denver, Longmont and Breckenridge.

For more information, concert schedule and ticket sales please call 303.832.4676 or visit www.DenverBrass.org. Tickets starting from $20; child, student and senior discounts available.
