The Denver Brass Presents: Road Trippin' with the Brass

<<For immediate release>> DENVER- “Are we there yet?” The Denver Brass and guest host, Rick Crandall present Road Trippin' with the Brass, inspired by the great American road trip!

Join the Brass on May 9, 7:30pm at the Newman Center for the Performing Arts as they travel from border to border, discovering all kinds of unique sounds along the way. Road Trippin' with the Brass will feature incredible trumpeter soloist and the Denver Brass' very own, Alan Hood. Musical souvenirs collected from all over the country will include: Grand Central Station, Wizard of Oz, Elvis' Graceland and much more.

Grown right here at home, The Denver Brass is a style-melding band of 14 professional musicians. They are dedicated to enhancing the quality of life in Colorado audiences by presenting fresh and exhilarating shows that feature all musical styles. One of just a few professional large brass ensembles in the world, The Denver Brass enjoys a success directly linked to its universal appeal. The musicians are all full-time professionals and live all along the front range of the Rockies – from Colorado Springs to Denver, Longmont and Breckenridge.

For more information, concert schedule and ticket sales please call 303.832.4676 or visit www.DenverBrass.org. Tickets starting from $22; child, student and senior discounts available.
