

For more information:
Nicole Guillo
303.832.4676
Nicole@denverbrass.org

April 6, 2015

The Denver Brass presents: Colorado Remembers at the Colorado Freedom Memorial

<<For immediate release>> DENVER- Honor your Colorado veterans and rediscover the thrill of live music by joining The Denver Brass along with KEZW's Rick Crandall, Sound of the Rockies men's chorus, and the United States Air Force Honor Guard and Drill Team from Washington D.C. at the Colorado Freedom Memorial on Saturday, May 23rd. This day of all new free events is anticipated to become an annual occurrence so bring a blanket, lawn chair, and picnic basket and see what it's all about!

The day will start with Camp Distant Valor from 10:00am – 5:30pm. Members of Colorado's dynamic military reenactment community will be setting up Camp near the Freedom Memorial. Military vehicles, equipment and personnel will be featured and visitors will learn about some of the conditions and challenges men faced while preserving our freedom.

From 11:00am – noon there will be the Colorado Freedom Memorial Anniversary Ceremony which will pay tribute and special recognition to the World War II veterans in attendance.

The crowning event will be a spectacular concert fashioned after the National Memorial Day concert in Washington D.C. The 7pm concert will feature the stirring sounds of the Denver Brass in all its patriotic glory along with our host, Rick Crandall, Sound of the Rockies men's chorus, and the United States Air Force Honor Guard and Drill Team from Washington D.C.

For more information and a detailed schedule please call 303.832.4676 or visit DenverBrass.org or CFMF.net.

###