Carnaval! NOLA to RIO: Laissez les bons temps rouler and Saúde amigos!

The World's Biggest Party:

It's Mardi Gras season, and that means outrageous floats, raucous parades, feathered costumes, big beers, beads, and brass! Denver Brass brings you a sizzling show that combines the creole jazz of old New Orleans with the hip shaking rhythms of Brazil. We're joined by a Brazilian-styled percussion ensemble to combine the creole jazz of old New Orleans with the hip shaking rhythms of Brazil. It's second line meets samba, hurricanes and caipirinhas, King's cake and brigadeiro. It's a party so wild you'll need all of Lent to recover. It's CARNIVAL! NOLA to RIO.

About The Denver Brass

The Denver Brass is dedicated to bringing outstanding musical experiences to our community. With a passion for promoting the arts and creating memorable moments, we curate events that resonate with a diverse audience, leaving a lasting impact. The Denver Brass is led by Conductor Warren Deck and consists of 14 world-class brass musicians and percussionists. The Denver Brass features a musical palette as diverse as the culture of the western US to present a sound experience that makes an impression long past the final chord of the concert. People from every background find inspiration in diverse programming – classical, jazz, Broadway, Latin, multi-cultural fusions, and new sound sensations created by brass with bagpipes, steel drums, hand-bells, fiddles, voices, and a variety of distinguished soloists. For more information about The Denver Brass, please visit denverbrass.org.

Support for the 2023/24 Denver Brass Season is provided by: The Scientific Cultural Facilities District (SCFD), Bonfils-Stanton Foundation, Colorado Creative Initiative, and the National Endowment for the Arts.
