Let Freedom Ring: Star-Spangled Season Finale

March 4, 2024 – Denver, CO – The Denver Brass is joined by baritone, Steven Taylor, in their Star-Spangled season finale! Celebrate American heroes from Copland to Ellington in this poignant and uplifting tribute.

Travel across musical vistas of America from sea to shining sea and salute those who have served our nation past and present. We honor and acknowledge the sacrifice and service so many have made for our country, to preserve and protect our way of life and the enduring spirit of America. Join us as we celebrate America through poignant remembrance and uplifting patriotism in this Star-Spangled Season Finale alongside our favorite patriot Steven Taylor with pieces such as Aaron Copland's Lincoln Portrait, Duke Ellington medleys, Louis Armstrong's What A Wonderful World, and a new arrangement honoring our great national parks.

About The Denver Brass

The Denver Brass is dedicated to bringing outstanding musical experiences to our community. With a passion for promoting the arts and creating memorable moments, we curate events that resonate with a diverse audience, leaving a lasting impact. The Denver Brass is led by Music Director Warren Deck and consists of 14 world-class brass musicians and percussionists. The Denver Brass features a musical palette as diverse as the culture of the western US to present a sound experience that makes an impression long past the final chord of the concert. People from every background find inspiration in diverse programming – classical, jazz, Broadway, Latin, multi-cultural fusions, and new sound sensations created by brass with bagpipes, steel drums, hand-bells, fiddles, voices, and a variety of distinguished soloists. For more information about The Denver Brass, please visit denverbrass.org.

Support for the 2023/24 Denver Brass Season is provided by: The Scientific Cultural Facilities District (SCFD), Bonfils-Stanton Foundation, Colorado Creative Industries, and the National Endowment for the Arts.
